

Investment objective (summary of investment policy)

The PSG Global Flexible Sub-Fund's investment objective is to achieve medium- to long-term capital growth through exposure to selected sectors of the global equity market, bond market or money market. The selected sectors of the equity portion will change from time to time in accordance with changing market conditions and economic trend. The portfolio may also include investment in units of another CIS portfolio whose investment strategy is consistent with the Sub-Fund's investment objective. The fund is denominated in US dollars and domiciled in Malta. The investment policy provides for an actively-managed, flexible asset allocation according to changing market conditions.

Who should consider investing?

Fund specific risks: The fund sits in the top end of the risk/reward spectrum and investors should be comfortable with fluctuations in global stock markets. The risk of short-term monetary loss is high due to volatility of exchange rates and global markets. The portfolio is exposed to equity as well as default and interest rate risks. Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of fixed income investments tends to decrease when interest rates and/or inflation rises. Default risk is where the issuers of fixed income instruments may not be able to meet interest or capital repayments. Investing in foreign securities may be subject to risks pertaining to overseas jurisdictions and markets, including (but not limited to) local liquidity, macroeconomic, political, tax, settlement risks and currency fluctuations. Changes in the relative values of different currencies may adversely affect the value of investments and any related income.

This fund is suitable for investors who:

- want a managed solution in offshore markets
- are comfortable with global equity market risk
- have a medium- to long-term investment horizon of four years and longer

What is a Total Expense Ratio (TER)?

The Total Expense Ratio (TER) is the annualised percentage of the Fund's average assets under management that has been used to pay the Fund's actual expenses over a one and three year period. This percentage of the average Net Asset Value (NAV) of the portfolio was incurred as charges, levies and fees related to the management of the portfolio. A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER ratio imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TERs. Part of the Annual Management Fee may be payable to the financial intermediary. The sum of the TER and transaction costs is shown as the Total Investment Charge. Since Fund returns are quoted after the deduction of these expenses, the TER and transaction costs should not be deducted again from published returns.

Performance fee

The fund's daily net asset value per share (NAV) is compared to the fund's High Water Mark (HWM highest NAV achieved) daily. Where the fund's NAV is greater than the HWM, a performance fee equal to 7% of the outperformance is levied. The performance fee is accrued in the unit price daily and collected monthly. No performance fees are charged if the fund NAV is lower than the HWM NAV. Please refer to the Offering Supplement for more detail on the performance fees.

Fee hurdle	High Water Mark
Sharing ratio	7%
Base fee	1%
Minimum fee	1%
Maximum fee	Uncapped, with a since inception High Water Mark. The fund's highest total TER since inception of TER was 2.11%.
Total expense ratio %	1.85

Performance fee example

You invest $100,000 in a fund today. The fund earns a 2% return over day 1 and the NAV at $102,000. A performance fee of 7% will be payable on the 2% gain. i.e. 0.14%. Over day 2, the NAV reduces by $3,000 to $99,000. No performance fee is payable for day 2. On day 3, NAV increases to $105,000. The performance fee will be payable on the 2.94% gain (NAV of R105 000 – $102 000 the previous HWM). The performance will now be 7% of 2.94% i.e. 0.2%. The NAV of $105,000 is now the new HWM.

General information and risks

Collective Investment Schemes (CIS) in securities are generally medium- to long-term investments. The value of participatory interests (units) or the investment may go down as well as up and past performance is not a guide to future performance. Fluctuations or movements in the exchange rates may cause the value of underlying international investments to go up or down. CIS are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. Where foreign securities are included in a portfolio, the portfolio is exposed to risks such as potential constraints on liquidity and the repatriation of funds, macroeconomic, political, foreign exchange, tax, settlement and potential limitations on the availability of market information. The portfolios may be capped at any time in order for them to be managed in accordance with their mandate. Excessive withdrawals from the portfolio may place the portfolio under liquidity pressures and in such circumstances a process of ring-fencing of withdrawal instructions and managed payouts over time may be followed. The portfolio may borrow up to 10% of the market value to bridge insufficient liquidity.
